

Outline - Sunday, October 27, 2013

Sermon Title: Hebrews 3: The Son, Our Brother, His Children

Scripture Reading: Hebrews 2:1-18

1. He is the Son, the Heir and highest authority: vs 3 "Therefore" Hear Him. vs 1, 5/1:3

- a. Christ the starting point
- b. Earnest listening – Lk 8:18 vs 2
- c. Greater accountability
- d. Qualities of the prophet/apostle – vs 4/3:1/2 Cor 12:12

2. From Adam to Jesus whom we see: vs 6-9 – F/S principle- "The Son" vs 4/Luke 3:38/Hosea 6:7

The tension between type and reality: But unto the Son – 3:6/4:14/5:8/7:3

3. The Son incarnate came to die: vs 9a/vs 3 – "for this cause came I"/John 12:27-28

- a. Exaltation through suffering
- b. Tasting death for all me (The Father gave him) - John 12:30; 17
- c. His brethren – vs 10, 11, 12
- d. Honored to call us his brother

4. I and the children whom thou hast given me: vs 10, 13/Isa 8:17-18

- a. Testimony of his labors—Gen 1:26-27/Isa 53:10-11; 60:4-5/Gal 4:19
- b. His seed

5. The Son, our brother the Mediator: vs 17-18/Heb 13:20

"The line divine of revelation leads to a mediator" son, fathers, prophets, etc.

- a. An eternal covenant
- b. The covenant of works
- c. The covenant of redemption/grace

The Fathers Will | The Curse of the Law | The Gospel

APPLICATION: Christ our head and Mediator is to be constantly considered as the covenant is being revealed to us, in a saving way, only through him.